JAMES OLIVER,

226 Chestnut St.,

PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, September 20th 1887

Hon'l. Dan'l. H. Fox

Dear Sir

Your favor of 19th Instant came duly to hand. The order for the other Two Gross Sponge Cloths, due you on your order of August 19th, has been at the factory ever since that date, but owing to the illness of the Manufacturer, no goods have been received from them since that time. I am urging their delivery all I can, and just as soon as I receive them, I will send them up to the Asylum without loss of time.

Regretting the unavoidable delay, I am

Yours Very Respectfully

James Oliver
